

Inside the World of Today's Teenagers

A Seminar for Parents and Other Caring Adults

with Chap Clark, PhD

Thursday, February 9th @ 7pm (Refreshments @ 6:45pm)

Location: First Presbyterian Church—4602 Cary St. Road Cost: $5 at door

Come and hear the latest research on adolescent development, family and social systems, and the rapidly-changing environment that every teen faces. This seminar is guaranteed to help parents gain insight into their child's journey and develop a more authentic and effective parenting strategy.

Chap Clark (PhD, University of Denver) is the Vice Provost and professor of Youth, Family, and Culture at Fuller Theological Seminary, the senior editor of YouthWorker Journal, and founder of ParenTeen™ Seminars. He is a speaker, trainer, consultant, and author of 18 books, including When Kids Hurt: Helping adults navigate the adolescent maze (Baker, 2009), and Hurt: Inside the World of Today's Teenagers (Baker Academic, 2004, CBA Silver Medalist for Book of the Year). Chap is a dynamic and engaging speaker who is passionate about equipping parents as they navigate adolescence in a changing culture.
